ABE W. TURNER, city attorney of Provo, is a native of Utah and has given a very able account of himself in the profession of the law. His offices are in the Knight Block at Provo and his home is at 90 North Second Street, East.

He was born in Heber, Utah, April 26, 1893, son of William L. and Jane (Hatch) Turner. His father is a resident of Heber, now partly retired from business activities, and his work has identified him with stock raising, merchandising and banking. He was born at Heber July 31, 1867. He married Jane Hatch, a daughter of the late Abram Hatch, of Heber City and Salt Lake.

Abe W. Turner was the second in a family of six children. He attended the grade and high schools of Wasatch and the University of Utah and went east to complete his legal education in Georgetown University at Washington, where he was graduated LL. B. in 1916.

On returning to Utah he was admitted to the bar but for three years gave his time and attention to farming. In 1919 he engaged in private practice, and his abilities have made him one of the leaders of the Utah County bar. He served as a member of the City Council of Heber in 1918-20 and was appointed city attorney of Provo in 1930.

Mr. Turner is a Democrat in politics. He is a member of the County, Utah State and American Bar Associations and is affiliated with Provo Lodge No. 14, Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He married, July 25, 1917, Miss Merline Roylance, of Provo, oldest daughter of William M. Roylance. They have two children, William Roylance and Dorothy Ann. Utah - After Vol III P97
